Brooklyn Bowl redefines the entertainment experience for the 21st Century. Centered around a 16-lane bowling alley, 600-capacity performance venue, and food by Blue Ribbon, Brooklyn Bowl stakes out expansive new territory, literally and conceptually, in the 23,000-square foot former Hecla Iron Works (1882), one block from the burgeoning waterfront.

Sunday, Tuesday - Thursday: 6pm - 2am
Friday & Saturday 6pm - 4am
Extended hours (including kid-friendly hours on weekend days) will begin late summer/early fall.

GALAPAGOS ART SPACE

www.spikehill.com

Since the Spring of 2007, Spike Hill has been quietly rocking Williamsburg. Spike Hill's foundation rests on the nexus of Brooklyn's famous music scene. With its early shows advertised mostly by word-of-mouth, the 140-capacity venue has nurtured new talent from the corners of Brooklyn and beyond, becoming a welcome hotbed for New York's burgeoning concrete-country scene. With delectable pub food, gold-standard Guinness, pristine sound and two full bars, Spike Hill has flourished into a staple among the area's clubs while still maintaining its intimate atmosphere, proudly hosting Brooklyn's fastest-growing Open Mic each Wednesday night. Be a part of Williamsburg's best-kept secret!
